

The Bride Says...

“Cherish each and every special moment of the day together. Take it all in, because this is your once in a lifetime. Enjoy it to the fullest knowing that the best is yet to come.”

The Decor | With Stephanie looking like a princess, it came as no surprise that her reception decorated by Royal Orchid Florist was a fairytale. On a raised platform overlooking the room, the couple's head table featured a lush blanket of pink and purple flowers consisting of hundreds of roses and hydrangeas. Floor-to-ceiling draping also provided a breathtaking backdrop for the couple where two chandeliers hung from a fresh floral arch. At the family tables on either side of the head table, gorgeous pink and cream floral runners ran the length of the table before spilling over the edge. Completing the venue was a stellar white vinyl dance floor monogrammed with the same gold emblem designed for the invitations.
